13. FORCE MAJEURE:

Force Majeure Event" shall mean any event or circumstance or combination of events or circumstances referred to clauses described below that wholly or partly prevents or unavoidably delays any Party in the performance of its obligations under this Purchase order/Contract, but only if and to the extent that such events and circumstances are not within the reasonable control, directly or indirectly, of the affected Party and could not have been avoided if the affected Party had taken reasonable care. Force Majeure includes but not limited to the following events and circumstances to the extent they, or their consequences, satisfy the above requirements.

- a) natural phenomenon including but not limited to weather conditions, floods, drought, earthquakes and epidemic.
- b) acts of any Governmental authority (domestic), including but not limited to war (declared or undeclared), revolution, quarantine, embargoes, licensing control or production or distribution restrictions
- c) sabotage, riots and civil commotion.
- d) Nationwide or wide spread strikes or labour disputes extending beyond the project site due to some governmental regulations etc.

The following events are explicitly excluded from Force Majeure Events and are solely the responsibility of the affected party.

- I) Any strike, work to rule action, go-slow or similar labour difficulty which is not specifically, enumerated in the above clauses (a) to (d).
- II) A delay in the performance of the service provider.
- III) Economic hardship.
- IV) Changes in applicable laws.
- V) Force Majeure events which occur outside India and do not directly involve India comprising act of war (whether declared or undeclared), invasion armed conflict or act of foreign enemy blockage, embargo, resolution, riot, insurrection, civil commotion, act of terrorism, or politically motivated sabotage or kidnapping or any event or circumstance of a nature analogous to any of the foregoing.

If the Contract is delayed or impeded in the execution of the work by circumstances of Force Majeure as herein defined, then the Service provider/ Owner as the case may be, shall within one week, give notice in writing to the Owner/ Service provider, of the existence of circumstances of Force Majeure, together with the evidence relied upon.

Burden of Proof: In the event that the Parties are unable in good faith to agree that a Force Majeure Event has occurred, the parties shall submit the dispute to arbitration, provided that the burden of proof as to whether a force Majeure event has occurred shall be upon the Party claiming a Force Majeure Event.

Effect of Force Majeure: Neither party shall be considered to be in default or in breach of his obligations under the Contract to the extent that performance of such obligations is prevented by any circumstances of Force Majeure, which arise after the Date of Contract

In the event that Force Majeure circumstances continue for a period of more than six (or any other period as Parties may agree) months, both the parties may discuss and mutually agree upon the future course of action, which may include termination of Contract.

Performance to continue: Upon the occurrence of any circumstances of any Force Majeure the Service provider shall endeavor to continue to perform his obligations under the Contract so far as reasonably practicable. The Service provider shall notify the Engineer of the steps he proposes to take including any reasonable alternative means for performance, which is not prevented by Force Majeure. The Service provider shall not take any such steps unless directed so to do by the Engineer.
